Acknowledgments and Disclaimers

The guide was supported in part by the Crop Protection and Pest Management Program [grant numbers 2021-70006-35450 and 2018-70006-28883] from the USDA National Institute of Food and Agriculture North Central IPM Center, MSU Extension, and donations from the Michigan Vegetable Council, the Indiana Vegetable Growers Association, and the Kansas Vegetable Growers Association. For full print version see mwveguide.org/guide. The management practices, products, and cultivars discussed in this publication are the research- and experience-based recommendations of the institutions associated with the contributing editors and authors. These recommendations are not exhaustive and other practices and products not mentioned in this guide might also be effective.

Insect, disease, and weed control recommendations in this publication are valid only for 2024. If registration for any of the chemicals suggested is changed during the year since the time of publication (December 2023), we will update the database and online guide at mwveguide.org. If in doubt about the use of any chemical, check with your Extension agent or chemical company representative.

The information presented in this publication is believed to be accurate but is in no way guaranteed. The authors, reviewers, publishers, and their institutions assume no liability in connection with any use for the products discussed and make no warranty (expressed or implied) in that respect. Nor can it be assumed that all safety measures are indicated herein or that additional measures may be required. The user, therefore, must assume full responsibility, both as to persons and as to property, for the use of these materials including any that might be covered by patent. Always refer to the pesticide labels before each application. If the label information is different than the information presented in this guide, always follow the label.
